* DATA RELEASE NUMBER (DRN): 2245
EXPECTED FAMILY CONTRIBUTION (EFC): 00000 C

Dear JOHN SMITH,

Your Student Aid Report (SAR) Acknowledgement summarizes the information you submitted on your 2011 - 2012 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Application Status (review the checked boxes)

- Your FAFSA appears to be complete. Review the data on page 2 and 3. We may have assumed certain information to calculate your eligibility for federal student aid. We printed any assumptions we made and the word "assumed" for the items on the back of this page. If you need to make corrections, you can go to www.fafsa.gov and use your Federal Student Aid PIN to access your information or you can contact the financial aid office at one of the schools you listed on your application for assistance. The school(s) listed on your FAFSA will receive your information.

Federal Student Aid Eligibility (review the checked boxes)

The data submitted on your FAFSA is used to calculate your Expected Family Contribution (EFC), which is 00000.

The EFC is not the amount of money that your family must provide. Rather, you should think of the EFC as an index that colleges use to determine how much financial aid you would receive if you were to attend their school. Financial aid may include grants (free funds that do not have to be repaid), low-interest loans (borrowed funds that must be repaid), and/or work-study (paid part-time employment). This award information will vary from college to college because the cost of attending each is different. Please note that your EFC is subject to change if you update or correct your FAFSA. For more information about the EFC and other sources of aid, go to www.FederalStudentAid.ed.gov/aidinfo.

- Based on your EFC it appears that you may be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant of up to $5350, in addition to other grants, low-interest student loans, and work-study opportunities. Your FAA will determine what types of aid and how much you are eligible to receive.
- We sent your information to other federal agencies through computer matching programs to verify your eligibility for federal student aid and there appears to be an issue with the information provided on your application. You can review information about these issues by going to www.fafsa.gov and selecting "View and Print Your Student Aid Report." You must work with your financial aid office to resolve any data matching issues before we can determine if you are eligible to receive federal student aid.
- Unless you are completing the verification process, it may be too late for you to make corrections or give us any more information this year. If you are completing verification and you need to correct your information, contact the FAA at your school for assistance. We must have your corrections no later than September 21, 2012.

You should keep this SAR Acknowledgement for your records!

Review FAFSA and Apply Signatures

FAFSA on the Web Submission Confirmation

Congratulations, Your FAFSA was successfully submitted to Federal Student Aid.

We recommend that you print and keep this page for your records. If you don't have a printer, write down the COMPLETE confirmation number as proof that Federal Student Aid received your FAFSA.

Your confirmation number is: F 624889901 ST 02/07/2009 13:23:09

Your Data Release Number (DRN) is:

Begin a New Application With Your Parents' Information Already Filled In

If you provided information about your parents and they'd like to fill out a FAFSA for another child at this time, select begin a new application with the parents' information already filled in. All of your parents' information (except for the signature) will be copied to the new application.

Your estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is: 22066

Your estimated EFC is based on the information you provided on this FAFSA. It may change depending on your school's verification of information you provided. The EFC is not the amount of money that you or your family must provide. Rather, you should think of the EFC as an index that schools use to determine your eligibility for federal student aid.

For more information about the EFC, go to www.studentaid.ed.gov, select "Funding" then "Student Aid Eligibility" and scroll down to "How will I know what I'm eligible for?"

Based on your estimated EFC and current Federal Pell Grant requirements, your EFC indicates that you are not eligible to receive the Federal Pell Grant.

However, your financial aid award may include other federal student aid like low-interest student loans and work-study opportunities, depending on which federal student aid programs your school participates in. You might also be eligible for funds from your state or school. All of this is in addition to any private scholarships you may receive. For additional information about scholarships or other sources of aid visit www.studentaid.ed.gov.

What Happens Now?

A. Your FAFSA will be processed within 3 to 4 days. You can check the status of your application by selecting Check Status of a Submitted FAFSA or Print Signature Page under the FAFSA Follow-Up section of the home page.

B. Receive and review your Student Aid Report (SAR).
If you provided a valid e-mail address, you will receive a notification e-mail with instructions on how to view your 2009-2010 SAR online. You can also print a copy by selecting View and Print Your Student Aid Report under the FAFSA Follow-up section of the home page.

If you did not provide an e-mail address, we will mail you a paper 2009-2010 SAR.

C. Enter our address into your e-mail address book.
Some e-mail providers will only deliver messages to your inbox if the sender's address is listed in your address book. Add our originating address to your address book: FederalStudentAidFAFSA@cpsmall.ed.gov.

D. Making corrections if necessary
If you discover you've made a mistake after submitting your 2009-2010 application, you must wait until your application has been processed before you can make corrections. If you have a PIN, you can access and correct your processed FAFSA information by selecting Make Corrections to a Processed FAFSA under the FAFSA Follow-up section of the home page.
